

WHO'S KAM

Kam Phillips is a master facilitator who integrates financial literacy and emotional intelligence to prepare students and professionals for career success. His authenticity, transparency, and relatability have allowed him to genuinely connect with his audience and become a respected resource in personal development. Kam uses his experiences and professional training to create a simple framework that helps people enhance both their emotional and financial wellness.

Throughout his journey, Kam personally battled with mental health challenges, veered on dangerous paths, and conquered many other obstacles. After being recruited to play collegiate basketball, then excelling with world-class banking and investment firms, Kam decided to walk away from his corporate career and use his gifts to invest in the next generation.

Kam holds a Bachelor of Economics from Emory University, is a Certified Professional Coach, Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion in the Workplace Certified, and Certified in Youth Mental Health First Aid. He is also the author of The Bigger Picture: A Guide to Personal, Relational, & Emotional Growth.

TRUE CHANGE PROGRAM WORKSHOPS

Kam's speaking topics combine financial management and Social-Emotional Learning (SEL) principles to provide a foundation for holistic personal and career development. Through his TRUE Change program, Kam uses interactive exercises to build young adults and early career professionals into emotionally and financially healthy leaders. Workshop series include:

VALUES TO VISION: Participants identify their core values, create a personal mission statement, and develop a planning process to support wise and deliberate decision-making.

HEALTH & WEALTH M.A.G.I.C.: Participants gain tools to help manage money, emotions, and relationships. M.A.G.I.C. stands for Mindfulness, Attitude, Gratitude, Inspiration, and Circle of Support.
